B'Yachad: Together

Looking for Jewish activities and friends for your family?

B'Yachad means together. We help bring together Jewish learning and young families. Explore simple ways you can bring Jewish ritual, experience, and practice into your every day lives.

We know that young children learn best through play and real experience. Each B'Yachad session incorporates plenty of movement and hands on experience to engage young children.

Join us on a Jewish journey of making friends, building community, learning, and family fun in B'Yachad!

Nitty Gritty

B'Yachad is open to the entire community, regardless of synagogue affiliation or membership.

Children must be three years old and not yet five years old by September 1, 2017 and be accompanied by their parent(s) or guardian every session.

B'Yachad sessions are held five Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary. The 3's class meets from 9:30 to 10:30 and the 4's from 10:15-11:15. We all have snack together from 10:15-10:30!

Registration is due by September 5, 2017. Space is limited, register early!

B'Yachad costs only $54 for the whole year of five sessions! An integral part of the B'Yachad program is building community together. For that reason, registration is for the entire year. Participation in individual sessions is not available.

Have older children? KRS has classes for children in K-7th grade.
