

Kehillah Synagogue to publish a new, fully-transliterated edition of the High Holidays Prayer Book
*Hadesh Yameinu, Renew Our Days.

Have you ever opened your prayer book and wished it were fully transliterated?

Well, your wish has been granted!

The Kehillah Synagogue, Chapel Hill, NC, proudly announces the forthcoming, fully-transliterated, version of the High Holidays prayer book Renew Our Days (Hadesh Yameinu).

Renew Our Days by the late Rabbi Ron Aigen Z"l of Dorshei Emet, Montreal is a Reconstructionist machzor faithful to the traditional Hebrew liturgy, yet with a contemporary, liberal theology. It is gender-neutral with complete linear translation.

This new version, which Rabbi Aigen and we initiated prior to his passing, adds a column of transliteration to every page. This extra column is a superb way to let readers follow the Hebrew, and even learn Hebrew since the Hebrew text, transliteration, and English translation are side-by-side. Everyone will be on the same page and people with difficulty following Hebrew can easily follow and participate. For congregants who do not read Hebrew, this new edition provides a more engaging High Holiday experience for everyone.

Producing a new edition has been an exciting venture for our Synagogue, but also an expensive enterprise.

This new version will be available for the 2018 High Holidays. Pre-orders are now being taken to help us determine our run volume.

The cost is $50 for each of the first four books. Five to 20 books cost an additional $45 each, 21 to 50 books an additional $40 each, and any above 51 costs an additional $35. Plus shipping.
