

Interim Education Director
Kehillah Synagogue
Chapel Hill, North Carolina

We are seeking a qualified candidate for the Interim Education Director for our close-knit and vibrant community. Are you passionate about Jewish education? Would you love to help create the vision for a vibrant future with us? We are now accepting applications for an Interim Education Director.

Kehillah Synagogue is a Reconstructionist community in the Chapel Hill/Durham area of North Carolina serving approximately 200 families and 75 students. We are close to Research Triangle Park as well as UNC Chapel Hill, Duke University, and NC State. The area is growing and thriving economically but still has a relatively low cost-of-living. Our congregation is engaged and diverse, with a strong tradition of social action. We are a warm, welcoming, and inclusive community. The Interim Education Director reports to Kehillah's CEO and works in partnership with the Rabbi and administrative team, and various committees including religious school committee. The ideal candidate will have a passion for both Jewish education and building community. Flexibility, creativity, collaboration skills, joy working with children, and teamwork are crucial to the position.

The essential responsibilities of the Interim Education Director include, but are not limited to:

- Run our religious school: implement existing curriculum, special holiday programming, work with religious school committee.
- Coordinate all aspects of the b'nei mitzvah program.
- Plan and manage youth engagement activities outside of religious school ages including B'Yachad programming for pre-K students.
- Communicate effectively with all stakeholders.
- Manage budget and personnel (train and support religious school staff).

Qualifications

Our ideal candidate is a master educator and leader. This person fosters a love of Judaism and Jewish learning and inspires children and adults. Masters in Jewish Education and at least 4 years of relevant experience.

Compensation

- Salary commensurate with experience
- Position available effective immediately and runs through May 2023

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis starting immediately until the position is filled. To apply, submit a cover letter and resume to the Mary Lawrence (mary@kehillahsynagogue.org).

Kehillah Synagogue is an Equal Opportunity employer. We value a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture. Kehillah encourages applications from all qualified individuals without regard to race, ethnicity, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, age, national origin, marital status, citizenship, physical ability, or veteran status.
