

Director of Education
Kehillah Synagogue
Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Are you passionate about Jewish education? Would you love to help create the future for our vibrant, growing community? We are now accepting applications for a new Director of Education.

Kehillah Synagogue is a Reconstructionist community in the Chapel Hill/Durham area of North Carolina serving approximately 195 families and 70 students. We are close to Research Triangle Park as well as UNC Chapel Hill, Duke University, and NC State. The area is expanding and thriving economically, and still has a relatively low cost-of-living.

Our congregation is engaged and diverse, with a strong tradition of social action. We are a warm, welcoming, and inclusive community. The Director of Education reports to Kehillah's CEO and works in partnership with the Rabbi and administrative team, and various committees including the religious school committee.

Our ideal candidate will have a passion for both Jewish education and building community. Flexibility, creativity, collaboration skills, joy working with children, and teamwork are crucial to the position.

The essential responsibilities of the Director of Education include, but are not limited to:

- Run our religious school: plan and update curriculum, run special school holiday programming, work with religious school teachers and committee
- Coordinate all aspects of the b'nei mitzvah program
- Plan and manage youth engagement activities beyond religious school ages - B'Yachad programming for pre-K students and youth group for teens.
- Effectively communicate with all stakeholders
- Manage budget and personnel (hire, train and support religious school staff).

Qualifications

Our ideal candidate is an experienced educator and leader. This person fosters a love of Judaism and Jewish learning and inspires children and adults. Masters in Jewish Education is preferred but not required.

Compensation

- Salary negotiable and commensurate with experience.
- Benefits including health insurance, retirement and paid leave
- Position available effective June 2023. The actual start date is negotiable.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled. To apply, submit cover letter and resume to Education Search Committee and email to mary@kehillahsynagogue.org

Kehillah Synagogue is an Equal Opportunity employer. We value a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture. Kehillah encourages applications from all qualified individuals without regard to race, ethnicity, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, age, national origin, marital status, citizenship, physical ability, or veteran status.
